

Objectives of Research Coordination

- Selection of grant calls for scientific-research units/ research groups
- Establishment of scientific consortia
- Assessment and monitoring of possible outcomes of current and planned research projects
- Identification of priority projects and research trends
- Support of multidisciplinary research projects
- Development of interdisciplinary research projects
- Discussion of issues of patent and research commercialization
- Engagement in research activities